

Shane N. Fullmer

Acting Deputy Program Executive Officer / Chief of Staff
Program Executive Office Combat Support & Combat Service Support

Mr. Shane N. Fullmer has served as the Chief of Staff for PEO Combat Support & Combat Service Support, headquartered at the Detroit Arsenal Mich., in and out of uniform since 2019. PEO CS&CSS is responsible for managing roughly one-fifth of the Army's total equipment programs, most of which span the Ordnance, Quartermaster, Transportation and Engineer portfolios.

Prior to serving as Chief of Staff, then-COL Fullmer retired from active duty after more than 30 years. His career culminated as Project Manager for the Joint Program Office, Joint Light Tactical Vehicles. In this capacity, he was chartered to manage the cost, schedule, and performance of the development and production of the Joint Light Tactical Vehicle Family of Vehicles — a critical component of the U.S. Army's and Marine Corps' tactical wheeled vehicle modernization strategies. As the Project Manager, he led his Army-Marine Corps team to a successful Full Rate Production Decision in June 2019. Prior to that assignment, Fullmer served as Product Director for Team C, Joint Program Office, Joint Light Tactical Vehicles at the Detroit Arsenal.

Mr. Fullmer commissioned into the Army through ROTC at Utah State University in 1990. During his military career, he held numerous tactical command and staff assignments, including Engineer Squad Member, 116th Combat Engineers; Tank Platoon Leader, A 2/64 AR; Mortar Platoon Leader, HHC 2/64 AR; Company Executive Officer, D 2/64 AR; Assistant S-3, 1st BDE, 2 AR Division; Company Commander, A 3/66 AR; and Company Commander, D 1st Tank BN, 191st BDE (TS).

Since joining the Army Acquisition Corps in 1999, Fullmer has held acquisition assignments as Product Manager, Medium Tactical Vehicles; Deputy Director, Army Evaluation Task Force Integration Directorate in the Program Management Office, Future Combat Systems; Test Officer for Operational Test Command; Assistant Product Manager for the Stryker Mobile Gun System; Assistant Product Manager for Stryker Logistics; and the Deputy Chief of the Tank-Automotive and Armaments Command's Material Fielding Team.

Mr. Fullmer holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Utah State University; a Master of Science degree in Administration from Central Michigan University; and a Master of Strategic Studies degree from the U.S. Army War College. His military education includes the Armor Officer Basic and Advanced Courses; Combined Arms and Services Staff School; the Materiel Acquisition Manager's Course; the Army Command and General Staff School; the Program Manager's Course (PMT 401); and the Executive Program Manager's Course (PMT 402).

His awards include the Legion of Merit (2nd award); the Bronze Star Medal; the Meritorious Service Medal (7th award); the Army Commendation Medal (4th award); the Army Achievement Medal (4th award); the Army superior Unit Award (3rd award); the National Defense Service Medal (2nd award); the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal; the Iraq Campaign Medal with Campaign Star; the Army Service Ribbon; Overseas Service Ribbon; and the Expert Infantryman's Badge.

Mr. Fullmer holds Army Acquisition Corps Level III Certification in Program Management and Level I Certification in Logistics.
