

Lisa M. Crouch

Lisa Crouch entered civilian service in 2009 as a Contract Specialist intern working for Army Contracting Command – Detroit Arsenal (ACC-DA) in Project Manager (PM) Stryker/LAV Division, a Buyer Boot Camp 10 alum. While there she supported both offices and worked her way to a GS12 Contract Specialist. In 2015 she was promoted to Procuring Contracting Officer in Acquisition Services Contracting Division where she served as Team Chief for the Services Contracting Team.

In late 2015 Ms. Crouch departed ACC-DA for a core Procurement Specialist position in Program Executive Office (PEO) Combat Support and Combat Service Support (CS&CSS), PM Force Projection (FP). She spent four years advising and guiding programs on the acquisition process. While in PM FP she supported several offices including Product Manager (PdM) Petroleum and Water Systems (PAWS), PdM Bridging, PdM Robotic and Autonomous Systems, and Robot Logistics Support Center (RLSC). During her time in PM FP, she also gained her master's degree in Program Management through the Naval Postgraduate School, 2018 Alumni.

After earning her master's in Program Management, she served as Assistant Program Manager (APM) in Joint Project Office Joint Light Tactical Vehicle (JLTV) where she was the Network Architecture APM from 2019 to 2023. During her time in JLTV she was responsible for managing the integration of several network radios and other network hardware for the Army and Marine Corps.

In 2023, Ms. Crouch was promoted to Program Officer (Acquisition) in PEO Ground Combat Systems (GCS), PM Self-Propelled Howitzer (SPHS) where she served on the Self-Propelled Howitzer-Modernization team. During her time in SPHS she developed several strategic courses of action to address programmatic challenges utilizing her Contracting and Program Management experience.

Ms. Crouch holds Program Management – Advanced, Contracting – Professional, and Life Cycle Logistics – Foundational certifications. She received The Honorable Order of Saint Barbara in 2025, Meritorious Civilian Service Metal in 2023, Department of the Army Commanders Award for Civilian Service in 2018, and Department of the Army Superior Civilian Service Award in 2015.

Ms. Crouch enjoys spending time with family, cooking, and vacationing. She is married to her husband John and has a daughter Kaitlyn (21).
